STAND UP FOR HOME ENTERPRISE.

Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it Sears and Roebuck? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery Ward & Co., or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for the church or some needy person in town do you write to the Fair Store in Chicago or do you go to your home merchant? How much does Seigel, Cooper & Co., give toward keeping up the sidewalks or paying the ministers' salary? When you were sick how many nights did the Larakin Soap Co. sit up with you? When your loved one was buried was it your home merchant who dropped the tear of sympathy and uttered the cheering word or was it Marshall Field & Co? Patronize home merchants.—Willis Progress.

Amen, amen, and then some. There are also a few things that the home merchant should remember. Who stands up for you through thick and thin, who brags on your stocks, who makes it plain to the people it is to their interest, as well as their duty to trade with the home merchant? Is it Sparks and Sports or your home paper? When a new enterprise is to be put on foot, whom do you ask to whom it up? The Horses Printing Company or your home paper? When the schools are to be praised, when good streets and sidewalks are to be advocated, when the advantages of the town are to be held up as a market center and trading point, when the fertility of the soil, and the opportunities offered by the city are to be advertised to the world, who is expected, to do it? The work of revising the tariff by congress, like Tennyson's Brook goes on forever.

The Lord may have made a better country than Brazos county, but he surely never did.

The day that Teddy leaves Africa will no doubt be declared a national holiday by the creeters that are left in that country.

Bryan is a city of schools and elegant churches. It is noted for its culture and for its orderly and law-abiding citizens. All these things go hand in hand.

Saving up the empty bottles in a dry county to be used in a future prohibition campaign is a new one. Smith county, however, is noted for its long headed, wire pulling politicians.

Culberson and Bailey are the "Big Two" in the United States senate. Whenever the lordly and bulldozing republican majority is given a thrust under the fifth rib, it is either Culberson or Bailey that does it.

No Roxana, Governor Tom will never serve as governor of Texas again. The famous war cry of the Crimea will be heard no more. From now on it will be "The Campbells are going," and bless God all Texas will rejoice when the last curtain is rung down.

It seems to be a mistaken idea that there are any man-eating lions in Africa.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

They are there, plenty of them, but when they meet Teddy face to face, they lay down and cross their legs like the fellows chickens who had the moving habit.

There are more pretty flower yards and lawns in Navasota than any town of given size in Texas. This is a broad assertion but we would not be afraid to put the matter to a test.—Navasota Examiner.

Editor Blackshear certainly pays his home town a high compliment in the above paragraph. There is nothing that speaks so much for the progressiveness, the culture, the refinement of a people, as well ordered and kept lawns and flower gardens.

The Orange Leader claims that it is more fun to have lost and found than never to have lost at all. This may apply to diamond rings, but won't work as regards teeth.—Fort Arthur News.

Thank goodness, we are not old enough yet to know anything about the effects of losing our teeth—nor have we attempted to masticate any Fort Arthur beefsteak.—Orange Leader.

The fun must undoubtedly start after the finding takes place. One of the editors of this paper had a weeks family washing stolen recently. They are still gone and the Lord knows the fun is yet hanging fire.

THE "FIVE FOOT LIBRARY."

Opinions of Texas Educators and Best Thirty Books Published.

While Dr. Elliot, the retiring president of Harvard was on his recent tour of the South, he frequently made a statement that a bookshelf five feet in length would hold sufficient books to give a man a liberal education. He held that their perusal in an intelligent and systematic way for ten minutes a day would make of any man of ordinary intelligence an educated citizen.

The Houston Post has recently addressed letters to some of the leading educators of Texas asking for a list of thirty books which in their opinion would come nearer carrying out the statement of Dr. Elliot. Below the Eagle gives the replies of two of them: Baylor President's List.

- To the Editor:
- Having been asked by the Houston Post to furnish the names of thirty books which, if systematically read ten minutes per day, would give a liberal education, I commend the following. I shall regard no man a heretic who opposes my list:
1. The Bible.
 2. Pilgrims' Progress.
 3. One English grammar (some popular edition).
 4. One abridged English dictionary.
 5. One good history of the United States.
 6. One good popularly written general history.
 7. Green's History of the English People.
 8. Plutarch's Lives.
 9. Robinson Crusoe.
 10. One good collection of the writings of Mark Twain.
 11. Irving's Life of George Washington.
 12. Life and Correspondence of Louis Agassiz.
 13. Carlyle's French Revolution.
 14. Motley's Dutch Republic.
 15. Bloch's The Future of War.
 16. David Copperfield.
 17. Taine's History of English Literature.
 18. Shakespeare.
 19. Milton's Paradise Lost.
 20. Tennyson.
 21. Emerson's Essays.
 22. Latin and Greek classics (some volume in English).
 23. Modern classics (some volume in English).
 24. One good descriptive and political geography.
 25. One good work on nature study.
 26. One good work on anatomy, physiology and hygiene.
 27. Bryce's American Commonwealth.
 28. Cooley's Blackstone.
 29. Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations.
 30. Galland's International Law.

 Baylor University, Waco Texas.
Dr. Fountain of A. and M.
 To the Editor:

I have your letter asking what, in my opinion, are the thirty best books. In reply, I beg leave to say that it would be exceedingly difficult, if not altogether impossible, to reach a satisfactory conclusion on that subject. I am sure that no two persons, however familiar they may be with the world's great literatures, would agree in all respects as to what books should be included in such a list. However, I enclose a list of thirty books which have had a powerful influence on many minds, and which, in my opinion, are eminently worthy of being "chewed and digested." Yours truly,

- C. P. Fountain,
 Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.
- Dr. Fountain's list is as follows:
- The Bible.
 - Bunyan's Pilgrims' Progress.
 - Plato's Dialogues.
 - Plutarch's Lives.
 - Malory's Morte d'Arthur.
 - Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire.
 - Grote's History of Greece.
 - Carlyle's French Revolution.
 - Green's Short History of the English People.
 - Cook's Voyage.
 - Goethe's Faust.
 - Shakespeare.
 - Homer.
 - Milton.
 - Dante.
 - Wordsworth.
 - Van Dyke's History of Painting.
 - Defoe's Robinson Crusoe.
 - Swift's Gulliver's Travels.
 - The Arabian Nights.
 - Boswell's Life of Johnson.
 - Bacon's Essays.
 - Addison's Essays.
 - Macaulay's Essays.
 - Thackeray's Vanity Fair.
 - Dickens David Copperfield.
 - Scott's Ivanhoe or Talleisman.
 - Kingsley's Westward Ho.

SHIPPED CAR OF CATTLE.
 W. E. Cloud shipped a car of cattle yesterday to the packeries at Fort Worth. Cattle are bringing good prices now and the farmer who has a few extra head that he can spare, is strictly in the swim. Mr. Cloud shipped a car of sheep last week.

THE SWASTIKA DANCE.

The Swastika Dancing Club of the A. and M. College, will give their dance at the Elks Club rooms in Bryan on Wednesday evening, June 9, under the auspices of the social sessions committee of the Elks. This announcement is made now to avoid confusion in dates, as the Swastika and K. K. dances will be given on the same evening.

DANDRUFF

Cured in Two Weeks or Money Back.

In fact E. J. Jenkins, the druggist has a wonderfully efficient hair restorer called Parisian Sage which costs only 50 cents a bottle that is guaranteed to cure dandruff in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is the discovery of one of the world's greatest scientists, who knowing the value of sage as a scalp cleaner and hair restorer, combined it with other ingredients in proper proportions, and the result is the most wonderful hair tonic in the world.

Parisian Sage is a most pleasant, daintily perfumed hair dressing, and besides curing dandruff, your druggist will return your money if it fails to stop falling hair or itching of the scalp.

It will make hair grow, and women weeks or money back. who desire soft, beautiful and luxuriant hair can have it in two weeks by using this famous, quick acting preparation. E. J. Jenkins sells it under a guarantee.

Don't let any druggist tell you he has something just as good as Parisian Sage because there isn't any hair restorer so good. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package, and you get a much larger bottle of Parisian Sage for your 50 cents than you get of the ordinary.

I have used various hair tonics and can say that Parisian Sage gave the hair a good, healthy, silky appearance, rid the head of dandruff, and keeps the scalp cool and clean. I recommend Parisian Sage as being fine for the hair and far ahead of any other tonic I ever used." Miss Emma Foess, 502 Adams Street, Owosso, Mich., December 9 1908.
